NIGGER MIKE'S OWNER PLAYS "13 HUNCH" AT 100 TO 1

Dets $52. All He Has, at These Odds, and Then Celebrates in Royal Style-Narrow Escape for Jockey Troxler-Ming Cleans Up - The Western Race Trouble.

Nigger Mike, a two-year-old colt by Shaprude, won the first race at Brighton esterday at odds of 100 to 1. He is owned y J. J. Kenny, a Pell street saloon keeper, aver. When he got to the track he had as tags in his pocket after paying for a badge of a programme. He found that Nigger ke's number on the card was "12" and that him thinking. It was the thirteenth of the meeting and the number of Kenny's badge was 13,072. Adding up these figures he found that the total was thirteen, so he Vigger Mike, standing ready to borrow car he whole $52 on at 100 to 1 in four chunks for him to make out his colt until he was well into the stretch. Then, as he saw he ad a chance to win, Kenny let out a series of terrific yells, at the same time dancing up and down like a jumping jack. It was tall rooting, but it served the purpose, for the colt won by a nose. Then Kenny began to shake hands all around with friends who were ready to congratulate him, after which he made a bee line for the ring and collected $3,252. The "13 hunch" was still with him as he counted off twelve friends and lined them up against the bar.

"Thirteen bottles of wine," cried Kenny.

and thirteen 25 cent clgars."

Kenny would probably have been willing her races to be run and as the money burned in his pockets he was just as eager as the rest to play some of the many good things on on the colt," said Kenny to the crowd at the bar as the glasses clinked. "But that cuts no figure now. Here's to Nigger Mike." A number of pikers played the long shot with dollar bills, while a stranger got $5 on at 200 to 1 with Leo Mayer. At first it was reported that Billy Porter, betting commissioner for Robert Tucker, had won $8,000 on the colt, but this was afterward denied.

It was announced officially that the Crescent City Jockey Club, for the meeting at the Fair Grounds next winter, had appointed Clarence McDowell residing judge, Frank J. Bryanl steward, A. B. Dade starter, and Mr. Nathanson secretary and handicapper. At City Park Mars Cassidy will handle the barrier as usual, while Francis Trevelyan will probably be one of the officials in the stand. ouglass Park, Louisville, will open on Labor Day for a thirty days meeting. A. W. Hamilton will preside in the stewards' stand. The cther officials have not been appointed yet.

Capt. Jim Williams has paid his forfeits to the Jockey Club and has been reinstated. He was at the track yesterday and will see Ram's Horn run in the Test Handleap to-day. Tur/men are wondering whether Ram's Horn will now be "sold" back to the Captain by

The fact that peace has been declared in the West and that racing may be revived in Chicago and other cities in that part of the country was received with much satisfaction by Eastern bookmakers yesterday, as they believe it means the withdrawal of the Cella crowd from the local tracks. Cells has so much at stake in the West that it is believed he cannot find the time to furnish the bank-rolls for impecunious members of the Mets n the local betting rings when the game to H. B. Duryes, price private. Madden put over a clever trick in Salvidere, the winner of the Montauk Stakes. The colt was re-cently sold by W. H. Brown to Madden and only start previous to yesterday the son of Belvidere—Sallie, of Navarre, ran a close second to the good two-year-old Fountain-blue, but the smart fellows overlooked this and bet their lives on Billy Lakeland's Elecand bet their lives on Billy Lakeland & Elec-tioneer, a colt by Voter—Quesal, hence a half brother to Tommy Atkins. Salvidere opened at 8 and was played down to 6, Leo Mayer playing him liberally. He ran a swell race and hung up a new record for the race at the distance, 1:18 4-5.

Jockey Troxier had a narrow escape in the third race. He had the leg up on Orly II., the favorite, and at the head of the stretch, when he was beginning to make up lost ground on the outside of the big field, the horse crossed his legs and fell. Troxler was picked up unconscious and was taken to the emer-gency hospital in an ambulance. He had a bad cut over the eye and also sufferedfrom a wrenched back. But he soon revived and went home, accompanied by his wife. The funeral of John E. McDonaid, the turf-man who was killed in the recent English railway disaster, will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Agnes's Church, Fortythird street near Lexington avenue. The remains arrived here from England on Monday.

Six horses fell in the steeplechase. At the first jump May Woodhouse, The Doctor and Onteora tumbled in a heap. Then Yama Christy threw Gee at the paddock jump, the jockey leaping to his feet with a grin on his face. Arabo and The Lexington Leader also took headers, but they were remounted and finished. Mr. Hayes looked to have been fouled on Grandpa by Kassil, the winner, but the stewards turned down the protest, much to the delight of an army of betters who had plunged on Kassil. The books began the day with a cleanup on the first race, as they kept a bundle of money placed on Waterbury and Moyes. There was also fruitless backing in this event on Pierrot, Alveston and Lord Lovat. The Millerites played Lad of Langdon across the boards and came within a few inches of filling their pockets with 12 to 1 wagers. The steeplechase, on the other hand, was a blow for the ring, as Kassil was tremendously backed to win, while Grandpa was taken both ways. The failure of Orly II. and Benevolent in the third enriched the chalkers, as both were ex-tensively played. The success of Embarrass-ment put a roll in Butt In McKinny's pocket, while Hyperion was well played to show.

Thousands were lost on Electioneer in the stake race, while McCarter, too, was a poor investment. Electioneer, by the way, pulled up lame. The talent got some of the lost gold back on Angler in the fifth, but Agile and Tartan burned up more than enough

GREAT NECK, L. I., July 25.—W. R. Grace, Reginald Brooks, L. E. Stoddard and H. C. Brokaw of the Great Neck Polo Club played a championship game this evening at Great Neck in the third of the series for the Great Neck challenge cup, and won from the four poloists composing the team of Squadron A. The total score was Great Neck, 10 goals; Squadron A, 7', goals. The field was in fine condition and the play was fast from start to finish. In the third period Hunt was unseated E ? . detected E A and struck the ground with much force. He remounted and finished the match.

In the second period and again in the next period the sphere hit the ponies while at top period the sphere hit the ponies while at top speed, and goals were scored by the horses. Hussell Grace was the star of the eight players.

SALVIDERE WINS MONTAUK. Added Starter Takes Electioneer

Four favorites were beaten at Brighton yes-Four favorites were beaten at Brighton yes-terday, the books again having much the bester of the argument with the talent. The bisgrest upset came in the Montauk Stakes for two-year-olds, six furlongs, when William Lakeland's Voter voit, Electioneer, odds on favorite, was defeated by T. Hitchcook, Jr.'s Salvidere, et a 1, an added starter. Electioneer showed nothing of the speed displayed by him in his previous race, when he was left at the post and then ran McCarter to a head. Instead he performed in a way that did not Instead he performed in a way that did not reflect much credit upon his owner and trainer. Salvidere was saddled by John E. Madden, who ewns a haif interest in him, and with Sewell up he ran a smashing good race, disposing of McCarter, the top weight, at the head of the stretch, and then winning easily by a length and a half in 1:13 4-5. It took a hard vide on the stretch and the winning easily by a length and a half in 1:13 4-5. hard ride on the part of Martin to keep the favorite in the place, as August Belmont's Don Enrique, 8.to 1, was three parts of a length back, beating McCarter a head.

Angler, 2 to 1 favorite, was victorious in the handicap at a mile and a furlong. He was perfectly ridden by Sewell and breezed home two lengths in front of Woodford Clay's Out-come, 6 to 1. H. E. Rowell's Corrigan, backed down to 6, was three lengths back. Tartan and Agile burned up a lot of money. The latter stumbled on the lower turn, but at that he never showed enough speed to make him a factor. The time was 1:38.

a factor. The time was 1:38.

Nigger Mike, a 100 to 1 shet, lasted long enough to win the first race, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, by a head from Lord of Langdon, 12 to 1, with Smiling Tom, 8 to 1, three parts of a length behind. The two choices, Newton Benningten's Waterbury, 12 to 5, and the Patchogue Stable's Moyea, 5 to 2, were never prominent, being shut off soon after the getaway. The time was 1:074-5.

The steeplechase was a ground and lofty tumbling affair, in which only four of the ten starters covered the short sourse without a fall. When it came down to real racing there were only two in it, Al Stokes's Kaseil, 3 to 5, beating W. C. Hayee's Grandpa, 2 to 1, by a couple of lengths in 4:21 2-5. Mr. Hayee, who rode Grandpa, claimed a foul against the winner for trying to crowd him against the timers' stand, but it was not allowed. W. Gould Brokaw's War Paint, 12 to 1, managed to stagger home in third place, fifty lengths behind Grandpa.

Koerner fell asleep on Barney Schreiber's Earl Rogers, 15 to 1, when he got to the last sixteenth, and C. Rose stole up on the rail with Embarrassment, 7, to 1, who won by a couple of lengths in 1:46 3-5. Hyperion, 7 to 1, was third, beating Chrimplain, 80 to 1, a head. Orly II, the favorite, crossed his legs at the head of the stretch when in the act of making his run under the whip, and fell heavily. Troxier was taken to the emergency hospital at Coney Island suffering from painful injuries. Benevolent, eccond his legs at the head of the stretch when in the stretch with Pythis, 2 to 1 favorite, Coleman, a green boy, lost his bearings and evidently did not know where the wire was. As a result Horner got Cressina, 5 to 2 second choice, up in time to win by three parts of a length, Pythis just nosing the rapidly closing Mollie Donahue, 10 to 1, out of third money. The race was run in 1:18 2-5. The attendance was about 15,000, as usual. The summaries:

TWO MAXWELLS WIN RACES. FATHER FIRST WITH QUEEN AND SON WITH YANKEE.

Big Fleet of Yachts Race in the Larchmont

Regatta—Pair Sailing Breeze Holds True—Queen Easily Distances Elmina -Yankee Finishes Ahead of Rainbow. It would take a contest for the America's It would take a contest for the America's Cup to create as much interest and enthusiasm as there was at Larchmont yesterday. Eightytwo yachts started in the second open regatta of race week. They sailed around short triangular courses, and when the last division had been sent away the first class was just completing the first round. From the time the schooners were sent away, at 11:55 c'clock, it was a continuous performance until the last yacht finished, a little after 4 o'clock. There was a nice club tonsail breeze, which held was a nice club topsall breeze, which held fairly steady throughout, and the contests in fairly steady throughout, and the contests in all classes were close and exciting.

The schooner Queen made another fine showing, defeating the Elmina by 9 minutes 29 seconds, corrected time. J. Rogers Maxwell sailed the yacht, and with him on board was N. G. Herreshoff, the designer of the craft. The Queen is improving each time she calls and weekled who was a witch. At the sails, and yesterday she was a witch. At the start Mr. Maxwell berthed the yacht cleverly, so that he was able to drive her close in to the weather mark, with the Elmina under the Queen's lee. It was as pretty a start as has been seen this year. The Queen was footing fast and took the lead at once.

In the 70 foot class the victory went to the Yankee, sailed by Harry L. Maxwell. The Yankee, salled by Harry L. Maxwell. The Yankee beat the Rainbow 14 seconds across the finishing line. The last leg was a closely fought one. The Rainbow, which was salled by Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, with Capt. Barr as an adviser, lost three minutes on the first two rounds of the triangle, but on the third round he was favored by a slant of wind, third round he was favored by a slant of wind, the Yankee running into a soft spot, so that at the second mark on the third round the Yankee was only 32 seconds ahead. A luffing match followed, and they worked so far to the south that booms were gybed and spinnakers set to starboard. The Rainbow got dangerously near her rival, but the Yankee managed to keep the lead long enough to win. The start was another pretty one. Mr. Maxwell followed, the tactics of his father and succeeded in getting the Yankee on the weather quarter of the Rainbow as they crossed the line.

of the Rainbow as they crossed the line.

The wind was from the east-southeast, and the committee sent the yachts in Series A three times around a triangle 3% miles in length. The first leg was to a mark off Weeks's Point and was to windward. On the second leg they had the wind about abeam, and on the third leg some carried spinnakers and others did well with only balloon jib topsails. The story of the races between the Queen and Elmina and the Yankee and Rainbow is told in the times taken at each mark, which were as follows:

The Weetause won in the 60 foot class from the Effort and Neola. The Isolde started but did not finish. At the start the Neola from the Effort and Neola. The isolde started but did not finish. At the start the Neela led acrose the line, followed closely by the Weetamoe. The Effort on the port tack tried to force a way between the Weetamoe and Isolde. There was very little room between the two yachts, and the Isolde was obliged to give way. She had the right of way, being on the starboard tack, but Effort fouled her, and for this was protested.

At the end of the first round the times were: Weetamoe, 1:21:32: Neola, 1:24:41; Effort, 1:28:29; Isolde, 1:31:36. There was no change is the order after this. The Weetamoe increased her lead and won handily, and the Effort on corrected time managed to beat the Neola out for the place. In the next class the Eleanora, the old Effort, lead all the way around the course, but ehe had to allow 8 minutes 29 seconds to the Irondequoit and so leat the race.

Ten of the New York Yacht Club 30 footers tarted, and the Atair won, with the Nautilius second-and Neola third. The Atair was well handled throughout the race and won by a good margin. In the raceabout class the Rascal III. was the winner, with Tomboy acound. The Rube as usual won in the first division of the handleap class, and the Maryola won in the second division.

E. F. Luckenbach's Sue won again in the Z foot class and in the 22 foot class the Joy ola won in the second division.

E. F. Luckenbach's Sue won again in the 27 foot class, and in the 22 foot class the Joy added another victory to her long string. Sactta was second and the Ogeemah, an old boat, was third on corrected time.

71ST MARKSMEN WIN. Blue jackets Do Well in the Shooting on the Creedmoor Ranges. CREEDMOOR, N. Y., July 25 .- The headquarters team of the Seventy-first New York Regiment captured the first match of the third annual meeting of the New York State Rife Association to-day and won from a field of fourteen teams with a lead of fourteen points. The blue jacket team of the U.S.S. Maine put up a game fight at the first two stages, but blew up at the finishing lap of eoo yards.

The scadogs of the battleship Illinois shot strongly at this stage, and their spurt nosed Company G of the Seventh New York out of third place, although the two teams were tied in the total number of points. The event was the company team match, a four man affair, with seven shots at 200, 500 and 600 yards. When Col. N. B. Thurston, the executive officer of the match, called the teams to the firing line at 10 o'clock a typical Creedmoor day was in bloom. A freshening breeze was fishtalling up the range, blowing from 10 to 2 o'clock, and the targets were occasionally darkened by the shadows of from 10 to 2 o'clock, and the targeta were occasionally darkened by the shadows of passing clouds. The Seventy-first head-quarters team forged to the lead under difficult conditions for offhand shooting and rolled up 119 points with the ease of veteran ahots. The boatswain's mate, first class seaman, chief master at arms and hospital steward, who composed the battleship Maine's squad, crossed the line a close second, with 118 points, and Company G of the Seventh New York was third, with 117 points. The teams of the U. S. S. Illinois, U. S. S. Iowa, U. S. S. West Virginia and the headquarters team of the Marine Corps tied for fourth, with 115.

At the 500 yard stage the conditions called for quick wind lamming, with the fishtall running from right to left through every string.

The Seventy-first's cracks sized up conditions for a total of 126. Thompson and Doyle setting the pace for the field with 33 each out of a possible 35. Fighting Bob Evans's diversified talent from the Maine equalled the New Yorkers' total for the range, and C of the Seventh shot up in the bunch with 125. Three teams were tied for third when the field dropped back to the 600 yard line at 11:30 o'clock, and with the Seventy-first and the bluejackets separated for first by one point the interest in the match reached high water mark. After it was over the New York team was safe in the lead with a vantage of 12 points. The fight for third place was so close—the Illinois and G of the Sevents tied at the total and at the range—that the total and at the range—that the ties was decided on the better score of the bluejackets at the 500 yard stage.

The splendid showing of the navy teams added greatly to the literest of the match. The high score for the day was made by Sengt. Doyle and Lieut. Thompson, both of the Seventy-first team, with 94 out of a possible 10s. At the 600 yard stage Thompson and Seaman Hughes of the lowa tied with 32 each.

Demonstrates Her Superiority Over Wentworth as a Racing Machine.

ALBANY, July 25.—For the second time this year Sweet Marie, 2:04%, demonstrated that she excels Wentworth, 2:04%, in a race. The two great trotters met this afternoon in a special race at Island Park, and the mare won in two straight heats. However, she did not have it easy, for she had to fight for the second heat, but she did so in a manner that displayed her superiority as a racing machine.

L.), 5; DETROIT, 4—FIRST GAME. As a token of remembrance while they are in the West the New York Americans plucked a couple of victories at the expense of the Detroits yesterday afternoon. The first section of the bargain attraction was ten innings in length and was the better contest of the two. The New Yorks galloped away with the second, raking Red Donahue's delivery fore and aft and getting even with that oitizen for the way he toppied them over in the first game of the series. The hillimen awang the ash valiantly in both games, stacking up twenty-nine hits in the four hours of their sojourn en the battlefield.

The first game was tied up by the Detroits in the ninth inning and won by the New Yorks in the tenth. Chase, who had not made a hit up to the tenth, girded his loins when it came to the supreme test and rammed a two-bagger to left which sent Keeler home with the deciding run. Keeler home with the deciding run. Seeler was just as prominent in the mélée as Chase, for he best out an infield single in the tenth and made his colleague's two bagger worth a great deal. There were some errors, and Silk O'Loughlin made as many as anybody else. Silk had an off day, and his average suffered.

a great deal. There were some errors, and Silk O'Loughlin made as many as anybody else. Silk had an off day, and his average suffered.

Before Orth and his aides bad steadied, the Detroits, between warm wallops to port and somewhat tangled work by the fleders in getting after them, made three runs, one in the first inning and two in the second. The New Yorks went right back at them and gave them a Roland for an Oliver. Hits by Keeler, Williams and Kleinow and two bases on balls gave the New Yorks their first three runs. Orth was himself again from that on, and pitched potently. By way of support Chave raked in various and sundry inaccurate throws. Wherever they came he got them.

Atroclously bad coaching by Yeager caused Moriarity to be thrown out at the plate in the sixth inning, but the New Yorks having driven Eubanks to cover in two innings, were now getting the hang of Siever, and they broke the tie in the seventh. Conroy survived on an error. Keeler advanced him with a hit to right and Williams tried a double steal. Keeler aiding safely over the plate, but being called out by O'Loughlin. Keeler kicked on the decision, and a kick by Willie is as rare as lee in the Congo.

O'Leary hit to right in the ninth, and Orth made a mistake in throwing Warner's assist to second base. O'Leary was there first. Siever saorificed, and Jonee's fly to Hoffman scored O'Leary. The tenth was short and very sweet.

Siever saorificed, and Jones's fly to Hoffman soored O'Leary. The tenth was short and yery swest.

Chesbro was due to pitch a good game and did it to the rooters' taste in the second soirée. He was invincible, and the Detroits drank the draught of defeat dewn to the zero dregs. They had three on bases in the fourth inning, with none out, but could not score, and from that on they played listessly, disjointedly and as if they regarded defeat ee a foregone conclusion. All the animation was on the New York side, the hilitoppers pinging the ball to their hearts' content. Hits and runs came in generous packages.

Two of Willie Reeler's running catches garnished the grapple, while a feature was a mishap that befell O'Loughin. Silk's head stopped a throw by McGuire to second base. Down went Silk, while the base runner, hotfooted to third. Stretched out though he was, Silk was still very much slive. "Get back there," he commanded the base runner, raising his head and pointing to first. It was as dramatic as melodrama, but the comedy of it was the more appealing element.

While running for a foul Chase's foot struck a piece of rock, and Chase pitched headlong to the ground. There was alarm lest he was badly hurt. He wrenched his knee and gave way to Kleinow. It is not though the injury will bother him. "Guess it"il be all right to-morrow," he said. The soore:

Champions Win Final Game in Pittsburg, Blanking the Pirates. After dropping three games in Pittsburg, the Champions braced and won one yesterday. Their record for the Western trip was eight games won, seven lost and one tied

NEW YORK (N. L.), 3; PITTEBURG, O. PITTSBURG, July 25.—It was good old Matty to-day. The bold Pirates, who have performed such wonders against the New Yorks during the three preceding games, were made to look like inmales of a foolish house before the mighty Mathewson. Pittsburg lost simply because they could not get hits when hits meant runs. Phillippe went in to pitch for the Pirates, but it was not Phillippe's day and after five innings he retired in favor of Lynch, who had been so successful at the opening of the series. Lynch repeated his good performance, but by that time the damage had been done, the visitors were three runs to the good and although they were held to that number it was more than a plenty.

were held to that number it was more than a plenty.

The New Yorks began scoring in the second inning when, after Seymour was out, McGann singled and Devlin beat out a bunt. Dahlen was hit on the shoulder with a pitched ball, and the balloon was up. McGann scored on Gilbert's long fly to Ganley. Mathewson got a base on balls, but the beat that Bresnahan could do was to pop up a high one, which Clarks took care of. In the third New York again scored on Browne's single, Shannon's accrifice and Seymour's hit. Seymour took second on the throw to the plate but "Cy" was nailed trying to steal third.

In the fifth Bresnahan singled, went to second on Browne's out and scored when Shannon went to second on the fly, but was left there as Seymour was out, Phillippe to Nealon.

In the first, second, fourth and fifth innings Pittsburg had men on hases when a hit would have meant runs, but just at those times Matty was at his best. Leach had to retire in the fifth on account of a wrenched knee.

Good Field Named to Start in the Test

The Test Handicap, at a mile, will be run by an excellent field at Brighton to-day. Ram's Horn must give weight to Aeronaut, Tiptoe, Klamesha, Coy Maid, Redouin, Inquisitor and others. In an overnight handicap, at six furlongs, Handzarra and Nannie Hodge, both heavily weighted, meet such sprinters as Comedienne, Far West, Edna Jackson and Watergrass.

Two-year-olds will run in the first race, at six furlongs, with Orphan Lad, Jaunty. Umbrella and Woodwitch having chances. Umbreila and woodwitch having chances. In the second race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Grenade, Tyron, Miss Rillie, Blennenworth and Ebony ought to go well. Two-year-old fillies will provide the third event, at five and a half furlongs, with Victoria B. Grace George, Laura A. and Suada having chances. In the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth, McKittredge, Water Tank and Ocean Spray look best. The entries follow:
